

Data Protection Policy

Beeston (Notts) Camera Club is established with the objectives set out in its constitution, and is a data controller within the UK.

The personal information referred to in this Policy may include name, contact details including address, email address, telephone number, records of entries to events, and such other information as may be necessary for the effective management of the legitimate interests of the Beeston CC. Any person wishing to verify, rectify or request deletion of the information held by Beeston CC may apply to the Secretary via enquiries@beestoncameraclub.co.uk.

Beeston (Notts) CC collects and holds personal information about:

1. The members of the Club, including the committee.
 - This information is used to facilitate administration and activities of the Club.
 - Email addresses are used to inform members of forthcoming activities, results of competitions, upcoming competitions and photographic exhibitions, members photographic interests which may be of benefit to other members.
2. Prospective members i.e. where people have freely given their email addresses at events that the Club participates in or where members who leave the club have requested to still get information about activities of the Club.
 - This information is used to notify prospective and past members of forthcoming events organised by the Club
3. Members as the creators of Images used in the activities of the Club
 - To enter external Club competitions the Club must provide the title of the picture and the name of the photographer
 - Members may upload images to the Club website
 - The Club will upload successful competition images to the Club website
 - Images will also be included in the Beeston CC annual Programme and Exhibition catalogue
 - Images may be included on the Club social media pages.

The Club may retain historical archives for such as, but not limited to, records of meetings, catalogues, awards and other event results.

The Club does not disclose members' addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses.